LIVINGSTON.

S. C. Franklin, watch inspector, jeweler and inventor of the Big Ben watch, was in our town Tuesday.—Little Miss Elizabeth Lemonds has returned to school at London.—John Fields, after a few days' visit with relatives and friends here, has returned to his home at Stanford.—S. E. Pennington, of London, was here Saturday.—Elder James Barnes, of the Scagg Creek section, was here between trains Monday.— Capt Bill Dillon, of London, was here Monday and Tuesday.—Our friend James Maret did not think of the trouble that he made for us in describing the watch that he claims we purchased from Jeweler S. C. Franklin. He should have known that curiosity-seekers would give us lots of trouble in exhibiting this wonderful time-piece, for you may search the patent office at Washington, and from Cape Sable to Lake Winnipeg, and you can't duplicate this watch. We are taught that Cyrus Fields laid the Atlantic cable, Robert Fulton invented the first steam boat, Eli Whitney the first cotton gin, Elias Howe the sewing machine, Benjamin Franklin, the lightning rod, and when gravitation shall have ceased to exist some will perfect perpetual motion, and Thomas Jefferson invented the democratic party, but the Big Ben watch was invented by Jeweler S. C. Franklin. Now, if our friend, Mr. Maret, will call off the dogs and agree to quit even, we will say amen, but if not we are camping on his trail and will try to uphold our side of the question, and if needs be, will make another trip to Mt. Vernon for the purpose of gathering information.
This week's paper will determine what the result will be. If he comes back at us again, we will rally all our forces and bring all our artillery to bear and tell in detail all we have heard while listening to him at the switch board.— We were asked the other day by a man from Garrard county how will Governor McCreary run in this town. Our answer was, if he will get one vote here we don't know it. All the Dems here whom we have talked to are for J. C. W.
Beckham and we think if all the towns are like this one, Beckham will have a walkover. We believe if the democrats wish to do the thing that is right they will pu-J. C. W. Beckham in the Senate for justice demands it. Gov. Mc-Creary is a good man and we like him, but he has had enough, let elect Beckham.—Editor E. S. Albright was in our city, Monday.— While our town has a population of about 400, yet we believe there are more goods sold here than any other town double its size in a radius of fifty miles. The railroad trade is a large item and the cross-tie trade is immense. There are seven stores, two drug stores, one restaurant, one butcher shop and all are having a good trade; one hotel and several boarding houses.
We have two lawyers and four doctors, and at present there is a tooth carpenter in town. A. M.
Payne is opening up a coal mine in Ford Hollow.—Bill Napier, who absquatulated (which means in English, left town between two days) has not been located yet.— Mrs. John Graves, of Mt. Vernon, is visiting her daughter, Mrs.
Robert McClure.—R. J. Lemonds has returned from Louisville.— Gabe Marshall has moved his family to H. M. Mink's mill, near Big Hill.—G. W. Martin has been very sick for a few days but is better at this writing.—Sheriff Cam Mullins was in our town Monday.—Mrs. Ema Jones is visiting her daughter, Mrs. F. Dis-hon, at Maywood, Ky.—We understand the night school conducted by Prof. W. R. Dickerson, is progressing nicely.—Little Charles and Jack Sams' sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Sams, have been very sick for a few days.— The holiness people, who began services here over a week ago, are still continuing their meeting.
—R. B. Hatcher of Lebanon, Ky., was in our town from Sunday until Tuesday; one of our pretty girls is the attraction.—Elder R.
W. Stowe, evangelist for the Sunday School, delivered two lectures at the Christian church, Saturday and Sunday nights.—We understand that Deputy Sheriff Dee Cammins arrested Bill Reece at Sinks, Tuesday, for selling whisky and took him to Mt. Vernon.

Well, the way of the transgressor is hard but this is only just. It has been said for some time that there were men who carried whisky into Livingston and sold it. The sooner they are caught the better for all concerned. There are lots of able-bodied men who will stoop to anything to get out of work, and just such men, if they will not work for their families, it is a good thing to cut their liberties off. If Uncle Sam has any use for them, let him take them and thus rid the county of their presence.— John Mink has returned from Corbin and will move his family to that town.—J. F. Neighbors has returned from Paris, Ky. He went there to look over the situation as dispatcher at that place but decided to stay here as first trick dispatcher, and we think he made a wise choice.—Edgar Col-tongin, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H.
Coltongin, has typhoid fever.— W. B. Rice has returned home to Paris, Ky., after a few days' visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.
H. Rice.—L. H. Davis has his new house almost completed.—Mrs. C.
A. Blanford and daughter, Miss Ella Mae, have returned from Parksville, where they have been visiting relatives for a few days.

BRODHEAD.

According to a recent verdict, the fourth money in the mule race at the Brodhead Fair, Aug. 1912 was $750, and that did not include the cost either. Some mule race for a little "Jim Tate" picnic wasn't it? At a meeting of the citizens of this place, and vicinity at the Bank Hall the first of the week, it was decided to purchase new grounds for holding the fair and a beautiful location was decided on near town. The grounds are situated so that a half mile track can easily be had, and the boundary will contain about 25 acres. It had been the intention of the management to secure a more spacious territory for several years, and the ambition of those present at this meeting having reached a fever heat, it was decided to buy new grounds, and put on a fair second to none. The capital stock will be between $2500 and $4000, according to the report of a committee appointed to make an estimate of the cost.
The grounds will be put in shape, and the buildings and other improvements made in time for a 4th of July celebration, which will be free for every body, in order that they may have an opportunity to see and inspect the new home of the "New Brodhead Fair". If any reader of this paper thinks this is "hot air" come to Brodhead and we will show you the largest list of stock subscribers ever secured at any mountain fair. Keep in mind the dates, August 12-13-14, 1914. The remark has been recently made that one fair is enough in Rockcastle, the speaker thinking that because of the judgment, that Brodhead Fair was out of business, why was it that this party did not think of this before there were two fairs organized.
We will have the biggest fair this year, we ever had. Watch us.— Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Hayes, of Crab Orchard, were visiting relatives here during the week.—Owen Cass and the writer had and occasion to visit Mr. John Cherry, who has been sick so long, and were surprised to see him in so weakened condition. We hope however that he will soon regain his health and be out again.—Miss Rilda Chandler was visiting friends at Livingston first of the week.— Miss Hallie Barnes returned home from a visit to relatives in Stanford first of the week.—Col. J. P.
Chandler, and Crab Orchard's soft drink man, was in town a few days ago visiting fair. The Col. says that the good people of Lincoln will do all in their power to make our next fair a boom, and that lots of stock can be sold in his county. Both gentlemen want stock, and we certainly want them with us.—Mr. and Mrs. O. R.

Cass were visiting his sister, Mrs.
L. B. Hilton, at Stanford during the week.—Frank Reynolds bought a horse at the sale of D. B.
Holtzclaw last week for a fancy price of $36.—Mrs. L. M. Brown, the efficient book-keeper for the Citizens Bank, is quite sick this week.—Mrs. J. B. Pike, and her sister, Miss Sue Cable, were visiting in Stanford the first of the week.—Master John Francisco is very sick this week.—F. L. Durham brought his little son, Austin Sparks, down from Mt. Vernon Wednesday to stay a few days with Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Watson.
—Miss Ada Ward is confined to her bed with a case of measles.
Her brother Frank, is about well again.—Mr. Will Storm of Keavy was with his father, J. R. Storm, Saturday and Sunday.—Steven Brown, of the Ottawa section, sold a tract of land to Thos. Mink, of Corbin, this week for $400.— Mrs. Victoria Brown sold a tract of land to John Denny for $200.

The Rev. A. Pike received a message from Lebanon Wednesday asking him to go to Maysville to hold funeral services at the burial of Taylor Myres, who had recently gone west seeking relief for tuberculosis. Bro. Pike left on the early train Thursday for Maysville. He had just returned from his appointment at Gilead, Madison County.—Wade H. Leese one of Crab Orchard's hustling merchant, was in town Wednesday on business. Mr. Leese informed us he was an applicant for the Crab Orchard Postoffice.—E.
A. Cox sold a small farm to Alfred Owens for $650.—C. A. Wheelton bought a half interest in a barber shop at Mt. Vernon, and took charge Monday.—George Reynolds, of Madison, Ill., is with his sister, Mrs. J. F. Watson for a few weeks.—D. W. Stone, of Louisville, will give a stereopti-can lecture at the Christian church Saturday evening February 7th, and a Bible school lecture at 11: o'clock the following morning.
These lectures are free, and will be very interesting and everybody are invited to attend.—Mrs. J. J.
Albright and her sisters, Misses Judith and Lena McCall, left for Richmond last Monday, where they entered the Eastern Kentucky State Normal.—On account of the revival services at the Methodist church, only one service was held at the Christian last Sunday, and that at 3: o'clock in the afternoon, so as not to conflict with the other services.—Miss Ella Carson was with her folks the first of the week. She has charge of the Girls Canning Club for Rockcastle, and a better selection could not have been made in the county.—Fred Sowder was in Richmond during the week.—J. W. Owens, (Candy Jim) has set out 2000 cabbage plants, and it would be a hard matter to make him believe that spring has not come.

A LESSON IN GRAMMAR

(Morehead Mountaineer)

When the writer was a padagag she used to impress upon the boys and girls the idea that "seen" was an old man and always used one of his three crutches, has, had or have, while "saw" was youthful and needed none of these crutches and never had one of them by his side. It was a simple device, but they remembered it, and some older people need some similar one to keep them from saying "I seen" and "I have saw"
"I taken" and such phrases.
